

Agenda Energy storage mapping

Brussels, 1 Place Madou

10 October; 10h00 – 14h00

09h30 – 10h00 Registration and coffee

10h00 – 10h15 Welcome by Per-Olof Granstrom, Eegi, EDSO-SG and Grid+

10h15 – 10h30 The importance of storage mapping in the European landscape, European Commission,

10h30 – 11h00 The mapping results: Activity across Europe and the member states

11h00 – 11h20 The mapping results: a thematic overview for Europe

11h20 – 11h40 Coffee Break

11h40 – 12h50 Implications of the storage mapping for the energy system. Roundtable discussion with views from energy storage users, operators, technology developers, research providers

Chair: Michael Papapetrou, WIP

12:50 - 13:10 Member state view on energy storage and the use of the mapping results, eegi member state representative

13h10– 13h30 Conclusions and outlook, the way forward for energy storage in Europe, European Commission

Sandwich lunch